2. Company Culture

I. Work Environment

We foster a positive and inclusive work environment where creativity and collaboration are encouraged. Our open-door policy ensures that everyone's voice is heard, and we value diversity in all forms. We aim to create a workplace where Edgematicans feel respected, valued, and supported.

We prioritize work-life balance and support flexible working arrangements, including remote work options, to accommodate individual needs. Our company culture emphasizes respect for each other's time and space, and we actively discourage overworking, promoting regular breaks and the use of vacation time.

In addition to our physical workspace, we cultivate a culture of psychological safety. Edgematicans are encouraged to voice their opinions, share ideas, and raise concerns without fear of judgment or retaliation. We believe that a diverse and inclusive environment where everyone feels valued and heard is key to our success.

II. Team Collaboration

Teamwork is at the heart of our success. We encourage open communication, mutual support, and the sharing of ideas and knowledge. Regular team meetings, collaborative projects, and team-building activities help strengthen our sense of community and purpose. Collaboration is at the core of our operations. We believe that the best ideas and solutions emerge when people from diverse backgrounds and expertise come together. To facilitate effective teamwork, we use agile methodologies that promote frequent communication, iterative development, and adaptive planning. Regular stand-ups, sprint reviews, and retrospectives are integral to our workflow, ensuring that everyone is aligned and any issues are addressed promptly.
Beyond formal meetings, we encourage informal collaboration. Open communication channels, both in-person and digital, allow team members to easily reach out for quick discussions, feedback, or brainstorming sessions. We also organize regular team-building activities, both in and out of the office, to strengthen interpersonal relationships and foster a sense of camaraderie

Our leadership team is approachable and actively participates in collaborative efforts, providing guidance and support while empowering teams to take ownership of their work. We believe that trust and transparency are essential for effective collaboration, and we work hard to maintain an environment where these values are upheld

III. Innovation s Continuous Learning

We are committed to innovation and continuous learning. Edgematicans are encouraged to take advantage of training programs, workshops, and industry conferences. We also support personal development initiatives and provide access to online learning platforms and resources.

Innovation is not just a buzzword at Edgematics; it's embedded in our DNA. We are committed to pushing the boundaries of technology and constantly exploring new ideas, tools, and methodologies. We encourage our Edgematican's to think outside the box and experiment with new approaches, whether it's adopting the latest technology stack, exploring cutting-edge design trends, or developing new ways to solve complex problems.

We also foster a culture of knowledge sharing. Regular internal workshops, lunch-and-learn sessions, and tech talks are organized where Edgematicans can share their expertise and learn from each other. Our mentorship programs pair experienced professionals with those seeking to develop new skills, ensuring that knowledge is passed on and everyone has the opportunity to grow.

3. Employment General Policies

I. Equal Opportunity -

- Serious Violations: Major safety breaches, such ats tampering with safety equipment or willful negligence, may lead to legal consequences.

I. Emergency Procedures –

Purpose

This section provides clear instructions on the procedures to follow in the event of a fire, ensuring the safe and efficient evacuation of all employees, contractors, and visitors from the office premises.

Fire Exit Procedures:

1. Fire Alarm Activation
   - If you discover a fire, immediately activate the nearest fire alarm to alert everyone in the building.

2. Immediate Evacuation
   - Upon hearing the fire alarm, stop all work immediately and begin evacuation.
   - Do not use elevators during a fire evacuation. Use the nearest safe stairwell to exit the building.
   - Follow the posted fire exit signs and evacuation routes to the nearest safe exit

3. Assisting Others
   - Assist colleagues or visitors who may need help evacuating, such as those with disabilities, pregnant women, or injured persons.
   - Do not attempt to carry someone if it is unsafe; instead, alert a safety officer or emergency responder.

4. Closing Doors
   - As you leave your area, close doors behind you to contain the spread of fire and smoke. Do not lock doors.

5. Evacuation Assembly Point
   - After exiting the building, proceed to the designated assembly point away from the building.
   - Do not block emergency services access to the building.
   - Remain at the assembly point until further instructions are given by emergency personnel or a designated safety officer.

6. Re-Entry to the Building
   - Do not re-enter the building until it has been declared safe by emergency personnel.
   - Wait for the official "all clear" signal before returning to your workstation or retrieving personal belongings.

Fire Exit Etiquette
- Stay calm and do not run during evacuation.
- Do not stop to collect personal belongings.
- Assist others calmly and effectively without putting yourself at risk.

6. Work Hours s Attendance

I. Work Schedule:

The Indian Labour Law governs Pan India office work timings. Edgematicans are expected to work 9 hours (10:30 am to 7:30 pm IST) from Monday to Friday (or as deemed necessary), including a one-hour break.

II. Attendance s Punctuality:

a) Login Procedures:
Logging In: All Edgematicans are required to log in and out using HRMS portal according to the allotted shifts. This includes remote work arrangements where applicable. Edgematics does follow flexible shift timings, but it is mandatory to complete at least 8 working hours per day. Any deviations from regular hours must be approved by the supervisor or manager.

b) Attendance Expectations:
Consistent attendance is crucial for the effective operation of our organization. Edgematicans are expected to attend work regularly and notify their supervisor or manager promptly in case of unavoidable absences or lateness. Edgematicans must inform their manager of any planned absences (e.g., vacation, personal leave) in advance by seeking approval and updating it on HRMS portal. We have certain leave policies which every Edgematican should adhere too and is explained further in the leaves policy.

III. Breaks and Meal Periods:

Edgematicans are entitled to breaks throughout the workday. Break times should not exceed more than an hour as per guidelines of the labour law.

7. Remote Work s Telecommuting Policy

I. Hybrid:

Edgematics has a Hybrid working policy this means all Edgematicans are to work from office 3 days a week and 2 days can be considered for work from home.
These days are defined as below:
Mon to Wed is work from office, Thu and Friday can be considered as work from home

II. Work from Home:

At Edgematics, we believe in empowering all Edgematicans with ownership and trust in their ability to perform with minimum supervision, and hence we offer a Work from Home option. This is subject to approval by the Line Manager in the best interest of the business.

- All Edgematicans are expected to consider that they have a strong Internet connection (WIFI/Dongle) and are not dependent on mobile data.
- Submit your WIFI bandwidth.
- Monday to Wednesday attendance in the office is mandatory
- You may apply for a WFH on Thursday/Friday. This is subject to the line manager's approval
- Pre-approved WFH may be cancelled if the business sees the need for one to be present in the office.
- WFH is not to be considered for work from hometown; please ensure that during WFH, you are present in Pune; if otherwise, please provide your respective line manager as well information on the same
- During WFH, you are not expected to attend functions/ parties / religious rituals/ceremonies/consumption of alcohol, etc. - if you fail to adhere to this, it will lead to disciplinary action.
- If you fail to adhere to the above-listed criteria your as per feedback from your Line Manager. In that case, the company has the right to cancel the WFH and request that you be reported to the office immediately.
- For all pre-planned office activities, WFH will not apply.

III. Out-Stationed Edgematicans:

You are expected to have an excellent internet connection and be reachable during working hours; if observed otherwise, the organization may decide for you to report to the Pune Office with a 15-day' notice.

It is mandated to be available for onsite (in the Pune office) activities; your respective Line Manager or the People C Culture pillar will notify you well in advance for any such travel the organization will reimburse you.

It is mandated for all out-stationed Edgematicans to be onsite in the Pune office once a quarter for a minimum of 2 weeks consecutively; this travel and stay will not be reimbursed.

IV. Timesheet Policy:

Purpose:
This policy aims to ensure accurate tracking of working hours for effective tracking of all projects Profit C Loss (PCL) by Project Managers including budgeted costs versus actual costs. It is crucial for Finance and hence the overall organization for raising invoices and resource allocation

Policy Details:

a. Time Tracking:
   - Edgematicans must accurately record their working hours, including start and end times (i.e 8 hours a day)
   - Time tracking should be done using the designated time management system (Keka)
   - Edgematicans are required to work a straight 8-hour workday with 1 hour lunch break unless otherwise.
   - Edgematicans must double-check their timesheets before submission to ensure accuracy and check if they are directly billable to customer or it is fixed cost

b. Project Assignment and Bench Status:
   - If you are not assigned to any project, you must mark yourself as "on bench" in the timesheet. Reach out to your line manager/reporting manager to assign you on Bench
   - Ensure that your timesheet accurately reflects your project assignments.

c. Submission Deadlines:
   - Timesheets must be submitted by the end of each week (e.g., every Friday by 5:00 PM).
   - Late submissions may result in delayed payroll processing.

d. Budgeted vs. Actual Costs:
   - Timesheets are a critical component in tracking the budgeted costs versus actual costs for projects.

- Edgematicans must accurately allocate their time to the correct project codes to ensure precise PCL tracking.

e. Approval Process:
- Line managers or project managers must review and approve timesheets within 48 hours of submission.
- Any discrepancies should be communicated to the Edgematican for correction and resubmission

f. Compliance and Accountability:
- Edgematicans are expected to adhere to this policy. Inaccurate or falsified timesheets are subject to disciplinary action.
- Supervisors are responsible for ensuring compliance and addressing any issues promptly.
- Timesheet data is confidential and should be handled according to company privacy policies and NDA

g. Absences and Leave:
- Absences must be reported in advance through the leave management system-HRMS portal.
- Approved leave should be reflected in the timesheet for accurate record-keeping.

8. Leave Policy

I. Annual Leaves

a) Accrual:

All Edgematicans are entitled to Annual Leave after successful completion of the Probation period.

A total of 24 annual leave days is the quota for a year, 2 leaves are accrued monthly which are credited to you profile on HRMS on the first of each month. One can avail annual leave for a maximum of 2 weeks consecutively and not more at a given time, as leaves are subject to business exigencies. Management reserves the right to defer or divide the leave to cater to the demands of the business.

In case of an extreme emergency where the annual leaves must be extended beyond the approved number of days, the Edgematican must refer to Management (Line Manager, Head of Department) and seek prior approval. In case of the request is approved, the extra leave will be considered as annual leave or leave without pay as per your leave quota.

c) Recognition: Acknowledging and reinforcing positive contributions and achievements.
d) Documentation: Maintaining records of quarterly reviews, including performance assessments, action plans, and agreed-upon goals for future reference and follow-up.

HR and management will collaborate to ensure consistent implementation and adherence to the Quarterly Review Policy across all departments.
This Quarterly Review Policy aims to foster a culture of continuous improvement, professional development, and mutual accountability, benefiting both employees and the organization as a whole.

15. Appraisals

The Annual Performance Appraisal at Edhematics is designed to recognize and reward employees for their contributions to team success and organizational growth. It serves as a comprehensive evaluation of individual performance over the fiscal year, aligning with our financial year from February to January.

I. Pre-Appraisal Discussion: Prior to the appraisal season, each employee will have a structured discussion with their Line Manager. This conversation will review the employee's achievements, challenges faced, and contributions to team and company objectives during the past year.

II. Performance Evaluation: The appraisal decision will be based on an assessment of the employee's performance, including:

1. Achievement of individual goals and Key Performance Indicators (KPIs).
2. Adherence to company values and behaviors.
3. Team collaboration and contribution.
4. Professional development and growth.

III. Decision Making: The appraisal decision, including performance ratings and any associated salary adjustments or bonuses, will be determined based on the outcomes of the performance evaluation and discussions held. Employees will be provided with constructive feedback and a clear rationale for their appraisal outcomes. Managers will ensure transparency and fairness in communicating appraisal decisions.

HR will oversee the implementation of the Annual Performance Appraisal process, providing guidance and support to Line Managers and employees.

This policy will be reviewed annually to incorporate best practices and feedback, ensuring it remains aligned with organizational objectives and supports employee engagement and retention.

16. Performance improvement Program and Assessment Review

The Performance Assessment Review (PAR) is the structured performance review system for all employees at Edgematics. It serves as a crucial platform for open communication between employees and their Line Managers regarding job performance, job satisfaction, and future performance plans.

The PAR facilitates a constructive communication to assess and improve employee performance, ensuring alignment with organizational goals and values. Each employee meets with their Line Manager to discuss performance metrics, achievements, challenges, and career aspirations.

1. Discussion Points:
   - Performance Evaluation: Assessing performance against established goals and expectations.
2. Feedback: Providing specific and objective feedback on productivity and behavioral aspects.
   - Development Planning: Collaboratively planning for future performance enhancement and career growth.
   - Job Satisfaction: Addressing factors influencing job satisfaction and engagement.

I. Performance Improvement Program (PIP):

If performance or behavioural concerns are identified during the PAR discussion, the employee may be enrolled in a Performance Improvement Program (PIP).

a) Key Elements of PIP:

1. Identification of Issues: Clearly identifying specific performance or behavioral deficiencies impacting job effectiveness.
2. Development of Plan: Creating a structured plan with measurable goals and objectives to address identified issues.
3. Acknowledgment of Outcomes: Communicating potential outcomes, including success criteria and consequences of not meeting expectations.
4. Regular Follow-Up: Conducting regular check-ins to monitor progress, provide support, and adjust the plan if necessary.
5. Documentation: Documenting all discussions, agreements, and outcomes of the PIP process for transparency and future reference.

II. Program Duration and Expectations:

- The duration of the PIP is determined by the Line Manager, typically not exceeding three consecutive months.
- If the employee fails to demonstrate sufficient improvement by the end of the PIP period, further actions, including termination with notice, may be considered.

a) Implementation:

- HR and Line Managers will collaborate to ensure consistent application of the PAR and PIP processes across the organization.

- This policy will undergo periodic reviews to incorporate feedback and best practices, ensuring its relevance and effectiveness in supporting employee growth and organizational goals.

17. Termination Policy:

I. Voluntary:

a) In probation Period - In the event of resignation during the probation period, one month notice period must be served.

b) Permanent Employee - In the event of resignation after being a confirmed employee (3) three month notice period must be served.

c) Involuntary - In the event of separation by the organization, Edgematics has the right to enforce separationwith immediate effect with/without any prior notice period subject to topics mentioned in this Handbook and Performance/Client related escalations. This is subject to a 360 review and a panel discussion by the Management (various factors mentioned in the handbook, when not adhered to, may lead to separation).

II. Exit Interviews:

Exit policy governs the activities when an employee chooses to resign or is terminated by the Company.

In case of resignation, an employee shall serve a letter of resignation to their immediate supervisor copied to the People C Culture Pillar.

Notice period duration is the subject of discussion and mutual agreement with the Management of Edgematics if any exception is needed to be made.

The company has the right to enforce separation immediately with/without any prior notice period in case of termination.

During the notice period, an employee is expectedto conduct themselves professionally as they would in the ordinary course C help in the smooth transition of their deliverables. Any tampering with this rule gives the Management the right to extend their notice period or withhold compensation, whichever it may think fits.

Management can extend the Notice Period of the employee in case of a senior/critical position held by the employee. During the notice period, no leaves will be allowed; if leaves are taken for any reason notice period will be extended by those many days. The Management reserves the right to waive the notice period in exceptional cases.

Before your last day, one-week prior Line Manager has to approve that the handover is smoothly completed and that no pending tasks need action. A detailed handover document is to be created by the employee and signed by the Line Manager at the beginning of the notice period. If the handover is incomplete, your notice period may extend, or we may need to meet in the middle to ensure this is accomplished.

Any Reimbursements should be filed before the notice period is over. The employee is expected to submit all of the Company's assets, including any technological gadgets, mobile, company credit cards, vehicle, identity cards, etc., on the last day of the notice period C fill out the exit form approved by People C Culture.

You are not authorized to reboot/reset, delete any information, reset passwords, etc., from the company Laptop; you must hand over the laptop as it is to the Administration department. If you fail to do so, it will lead to legal prosecution. Exit Interviews would be conducted by the People C Culture Pillar on the last day of employment.

Last month's salary of an employee serving a notice period will be released in Full C Final settlement. Full C Final payment will be released after 45 working days from the last working day or date of completion of exit formalities, whichever is later.

18. Notice period

All employees shall be required to give the Company specific days' written notice of their resignation, subject to the following:

- Permanent Employees: Ninety (90) days' notice.
- Contractual Employees: Sixty (60) days' notice.
- Interns: Thirty (30) days' notice.
- Employees on Probation: Thirty (30) days' notice upon confirmation or conversion to a permanent or contractual position.

I. Consequences of non-adherence

Failure to serve the requisite notice period shall be deemed a breach of contract and may result in legal action. The Company reserves the right to withhold any and all documents and certificates until the notice period has been fully served or bought out. Employees who do not serve their notice period will not be eligible for re-employment with the Company.

II. Buy-Out Option

Permanent and contractual employees may, at the approval of the management, elect to purchase out the remaining portion of their notice period depending on the roles and responsibilities in accordance with the Company's policies.

III. Conditions for Buyout

a. Eligibility: Only permanent employees are eligible for Buyout. This is completely based on approval of your manager based on the dependency and criticality in the project you are working.

b. Notice Period Served: A minimum 30 days of notice might be required before a buyout can be initiated.

c. Company Approval: The company might retain the right to approve or deny a buyout request.

d. Buyout Calculation
Payment Amount: The formula for calculating the buyout amount will be based on the employee's salary, number of days remaining in the notice period.

e. Payment Schedule: The payment should be done in full on the last working day of the employee only then documents would be released.

f. Other Considerations
   i. Waivers: The employee might be required to sign a waiver releasing the company from any claims or liabilities.
   ii. Return of Company Property: The employee might be obligated to return company property before or upon receiving the buyout payment.
   iii. Confidentiality: The agreement could include confidentiality provisions, especially if the employee has access to sensitive information

1G. Technology s Security

I. Acceptable Use of Technology

"Technology is integral to our operations, and its responsible use is essential to maintaining a productive and secure workplace. All employees are provided with the necessary technology, including computers, software, and other tools, to perform their jobs effectively. Employees are expected to use these resources responsibly and primarily for work-related purposes.

Personal use of company technology should be limited and should not interfere with work responsibilities. This includes but is not limited to browsing the internet, using social media, or downloading non-work-related software. Employees must avoid visiting websites that could expose the company to security risks, such as those known for malicious software or inappropriate content.

To maintain the integrity of our systems, employees are prohibited from installing unauthorized software or making changes to system configurations without IT department approval. Any misuse of company technology, including the unauthorized access of systems, inappropriate use of email, or the distribution of confidential information, may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination."

II. Data Security Policies

Data security is a top priority at Edgematics. We are committed to protecting the sensitive information of our clients, employees, and the company itself. Employees must adhere to strict data security protocols to prevent unauthorized access, data breaches, and other security incidents.

All employees are required to use strong, unique passwords for accessing company systems and to change these passwords regularly. Multi-factor authentication (MFA) is mandatory for accessing critical systems, and employees should never share their login credentials with anyone, including coworkers.

Sensitive data, such as client information, proprietary software code, or financial records, must be stored securely and only shared with authorized individuals. Data encryption is required for storing and transmitting sensitive information. Employees should be cautious when handling data on portable devices like laptops, USB drives, or smartphones, ensuring that these devices are encrypted and never left unattended in unsecured locations.

Phishing and social engineering attacks are common threats; therefore, employees must be vigilant about the emails they open, links they click, and files they download. Regular training sessions on recognizing and responding to security threats are provide d to ensure everyone remains informed and prepared.

In the event of a suspected security incident, such as a lost device, compromised password, or suspicious activity, employees must report it immediately to the IT department. Swift reporting helps us mitigate potential risks and protect our systems and data."

III. Software Development s Coding Standards:

"To ensure the quality, security, and maintainability of our software products, we adhere to industry-leading software development and coding standards. These standards are designed to guide our development practices and ensure consistency across all projects.

All code must be thoroughly reviewed by peers before being merged into the main codebase. This code review process is essential for identifying potential bugs, security vulnerabilities, and ensuring that the code adheres to our standards. Automated testing is also a critical part of our development pipeline, including unit tests, integration tests, and security scans.

We follow secure coding practices to protect our software from vulnerabilities, such as SQL injection, cross-site scripting (XSS), and buffer overflows. Developers are expected to stay informed about the latest security threats and mitigation strategies, and to incorporate secure coding practices into their daily work.

Version control is mandatory for all code, and we use platforms like GitHub or GitLab to manage our code repositories. Branching strategies, commit messages, and pull request guidelines are standardizedto ensure clear documentation andtraceability of changes.Continuous integration and continuousdeployment (CI/CD) pipelines arein place to automate the building, testing, and

AND WHEREAS this Undertaking shall be read in conjunction with the Employee's Employment Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and as a condition of employment with the Company, the Employee hereby undertakes as follows:

1. Confidentiality

   1.1. The Employee acknowledges that during the course of his / her employment with the Company, he / she will have access to and/or will possess (i) trade secrets; (ii) confidential information which relates to the financial position of the Company or the internal management and structure of the Company, or the personnel, policies and strategies of the Company; (iii) Intellectual Property which is by nature required to be kept confidential; and (iv) any other confidential and proprietary information provided to the Employee in the course of his / her employment with the Company, including information relating to customers, vendors, suppliers, consultants or service providers, current or anticipated partners of the Company; and (v) software, source codes, and any other information marked or otherwise identified as confidential ("Confidential Information"). To protect the Confidential Information and the goodwill of the Company, the Employee undertakes to the Company that he / she shall not, without the express written permission of the Company disclose any such Confidential Information.

   1.2. In furtherance of Clause 1.1 above, all memoranda, notes, records, or other documents made available to the Employee during the course of his / her employment, which contain Confidential Information, if in the possession or under the Employee's control shall be delivered to the Company, or on the Company's instructions destroyed by the Employee, upon termination of his / her employment.

1.3. This obligation of confidentiality shall survive the termination of the Employee's employment with the Company and remain in effect indefinitely.

1.4. The Employee shall take all reasonable steps to protect the confidentiality of such information and prevent its unauthorized use or disclosure.

2. Non-Compete

2.1. The Employee agrees that, during the term of their employment and for a period of 2 years following the termination of their employment, they shall not, directly or indirectly, engage in, be employed by, consult for, or have any financial interest in any business that competes with the Company within India, Dubai and UK.

2.2. The Employee acknowledges that the scope and duration of this non-compete clause are reasonable and necessary to protect the legitimate interests of the Company.

2.3. Any breach of this non-compete clause shall entitle the Company to seek injunctive relief, damages, and any other remedies available under law.

3. Non-Solicitation

3.1. The Employee agrees that, during the term of their employment and for a period of [Specify Duration] years following the termination of their employment, they shall not, directly or indirectly, solicit or attempt to solicit any employee, consultant, or contractor of the Company to terminate their relationship with the Company or to become employed or engaged by any competitor.

3.2. The Employee further agrees not to solicit or attempt to solicit any client, customer, or business partner of the Company to reduce or terminate their business with the Company.

4. Intellectual Property

4.1. The Employee shall disclose all inventions and works of authorship, whether or not patentable, trademarkable or copyrightable, to the Company which are created by the Employee during the course of his/her employment (collectively "Intellectual Property").

4.2. All Intellectual Properties are developed as works for hire. The Employee acknowledges that the rights in the Intellectual Property or any other work of the Employee in the course of the employment shall be the proprietary property of the Company, and all rights, title and interests therein shall vest in the Company. The Employee hereby agrees to absolutely and unconditionally assign to the Company (or any person or entity designated by the Company) all his rights, title and interest in all Intellectual Property, as and when such Intellectual Properties are created. Such assignment shall, to the extent permissible by Applicable Law, be automatic, without requiring any further acts by either Party. The Employee agrees that, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 19(4) of the (Indian) Copyright Act, 1957, any assignment of the intellectual property rights in the Intellectual Properties by the Employee shall not lapse nor shall the rights assigned or licensed (as the case may be) revert to Employee, even if the Company does not exercise the rights under the assignment within a period of 1 (One) year from the date of such assignment or license. The Employee waives any right to raise, and agrees not to raise, any objection or claim with respect to any such assignment of the Intellectual Properties.

4.3. The Employee shall cooperate fully with the Company to enable the Company to procure, maintain and enforce the rights in such Intellectual Property and other works. The Employee shall execute all such documents and do such acts as may be reasonably necessary to formalize the assignment (if such documents or acts are required or desirable) of such Intellectual Property to the Company (or any other Person designated by the Company), to protect the Company's rights thereto, and/or to enable the Company to enjoy the full benefits as the owner thereof. This provision shall survive the termination of the Agreement.

4.4. The Employee hereby irrevocably appoints the Company as his attorney for the purpose of (a) ensuring that the ownership of the Intellectual Property vests in the Company, and (b) for the purposes of seeking registration or other statutory protection in relation to the Intellectual Property. The Employee acknowledges that the Company has an interest in the agency with respect to the Intellectual Property. Termination of the Employee's employment shall not result in termination of the agency with respect to the Intellectual Property referred to under this Clause 4.

5. Use of Company Resources

5.1. The Employee agrees to use the Company's resources, including but not limited to computers, software, internet access, and office supplies, solely for legitimate business purposes as mandated by the Company.

5.2. The Employee shall not use the Company's resources for personal gain or for any illegal or unethical activities.

6. Compliance with Company Policies

6.1. The Employee agrees to abide by all company policies, rules, and regulations, as may be amended from time to time, including but not limited to policies related to workplace conduct, use of company resources, data protection, and social media use.

6.2. Any violation of these policies may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

7. Return of Company Property

7.1. Upon termination of employment, the Employee agrees to return all Company property in their possession, including but not limited to laptops, mobile phones, documents, and access cards.

7.2. The Employee shall not retain any copies of confidential information or other Company property.

8. Consequences of Breach

8.1. The Employee acknowledges that any breach of the provisions of this Undertaking may cause irreparable harm to the Company, for which monetary damages may not be an adequate remedy. The Company shall be entitled to seek specific performance, injunctive relief, or any other equitable remedy for such breach.

8.2. In addition to equitable relief, the Company reserves the right to seek damages, costs, and attorneys' fees incurred in enforcing this Undertaking.

9. Indemnification

9.1. The Employee agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the Company, its officers, directors, employees, agents, and affiliates (collectively, the "Indemnitees") from and against any and all claims, damages, liabilities, losses, costs, and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs (collectively, "Losses"), arising out of or related to:

a) Any breach by the Employee of this Undertaking or its employment agreement, including but not limited to breaches of confidentiality, non-compete obligations, and intellectual property rights;

b) Any unauthorized use or disclosure of the Company's confidential information by the Employee;

c) Any act or omission by the Employee that causes damage to the Company or its reputation, including but not limited to violations of company policies, employment agreements, or applicable laws and regulations;
